With India's domestic mobile manufacturing industry growing exponentially, the government has earmarked a series of initiatives to further catalyse the growth. The latest is the declaration of Tech Zone, Greater Noida as a Mobile Open Exchange Cluster (MOX). Strategically located at the epicentre of MOX is World Trade Center Noida, a sprawling integrated complex housing mobile giant Vivo, amongst a host of leading businesses. With its legacy as a global power brand, WTC Noida will soon be the preferred address of mobile companies looking to set up their headquarters. Don't miss this opportunity to be a part of India's mobile growth story.
